

FROME SYMPHONY

AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 MINUTES

20 March 2010

Thank you very much for coming to today's family concert - we hope you enjoyed it. Details of our next concert can be found overleaf, so do join us then if you can.

Frome Symphony would like to thank Holy Trinity Church, our guest musicians, all the volunteers who have helped with organisation and front of house, our sponsors and the Friends of Frome Symphony for their continued support.

We would also like to thank Somerset County Library, Bristol Ensemble, Bath Philharmonia and Jason Thornton for assisting with the loan and hire of music parts.

Performing Today

Presenter: Julie Payne

Conductor: Mark Gateshill

First Violins

Ursula Voigt (leader)
David Ball
Maria Beaven
Joy Crouch
Sarah Johnston

Second Violins

Estelle Earle
Sam Chilvers
Michael Fletcher
Margaret Pritchard
John Rootes

Violas

Patrick Dunn
Juliet Knollys
Chris Hutchings
Cherry Wong
Claire Yeates

Cellos

Chris Hurn
Fiona Blissett
Kit Denison
Tom Hockaday
Liam Megill
Bethany Short
Julia Thomson
Francis Tyson

Flutes

Emma Ball
Suzanne Moore
Linda Allen
Rosie Ray

Oboes

Alison Penn
Lydia Richards

Clarinets

Gemma Mounty
Guy Hobley

Saxophone

Patrick Dunn

Bassoon

Becky Roberts

Horns

Jon Benger
Andrew Fowler

Trumpets

Laura Carvell
Tom Burgess

Trombones

Tony Duffin
Tracey Edis

Bass Trombone

Pete Middleton

Tuba

Sam Jeffery

Timpani

David Dixon

Percussion

Jeremy Little
Kevin O'Rourke
Kate Yarwood

Frome Symphony would like to thank the following sponsors for their generous support:

Read Agriservices 01749 850586

Rosie Ray – Registered Homeopath DSH RSHom 01373 472717

Next Concert

Monday 12 July 2010

7.30pm

St John's Church, Frome

Frome Symphony are delighted to be joined by international opera soloists Deryn Edwards and Mark Williams to perform excerpts from Mozart's most popular opera, The Magic Flute. The concert will also include the beautiful Symphony No. 2 by Brahms.

Tickets will be on sale through the Frome Festival Box Office in late spring.